Dantzick, March 14. N. S.

THE Magiſtrates of this City having been inform'd, that the King of Poland has conceiv'd ſome Diſpleaſure againſt them; and that General Fleming has imputed to them the ill Succeſs of the late Diet, which ſeparated without coming to any Reſolution upon the Propoſitions made to them in his Majeſty's behalf; they have anſwer'd that Miniſter in Terms full of Reſpect, aſſuring him, that they are ready to give his Majeſty all imaginable Inſtances of their Zeal and Fidelity, in caſe the King ſhall think fit to Summon another Diet. We cannot much depend on the Accounts we receive in our Letters from the Frontiers, which often vary, and are full of Uncertainties. We are told, that the Tartars have begun their Hoſtilities againſt the Muſcovites in the Ukrain; that the Cham has paſſed the Dneiſter at the Head of the Budziack and Crim Tartars, and is follow'd by the Palatin of Kiovia, and a Body of two thouſand Men of his own Troops, one thouſand Coſſacks, three thouſand Swedes, and nine Companies of Walachians. They add, that the Grand Viſier is arriv'd at Adrianople, to haſten the aſſembling of the Turkiſh Army, that being the Place appointed for their general Rendezvous. The Swedes give out, that a Manifeſto will ſpeedily be publiſh'd in Vindication of his Swediſh Majeſty, and his preſent Engagements, and that they ſhall be able to tranſport their Forces out of Schonen, before the Daniſh Squadron, which they ſay is to conſiſt of twenty Men of War, can be in a condition to put to Sea. It is ſaid here, that the Swedes are iſſuing out an Order, importing that all Ships whatever, that ſhall be ſeiz'd bound to Livonia ſhall be Confiſcated, without any regard had to the Perſons or Nations to whom they ſhall belong. The Muſcovites at Aſoph are very buſy in equipping their Fleet, which will ſoon be in a readineſs to Sail. At the ſame time their Army near Kiovia increaſeth daily, and they ſeem to be under no great Apprehenſions from the preſent Conjuncture of Affairs. They ſay, the chief Deſign of the March of the Tartars into the Ukrain, is to encourage the Coſſacks to Revolt, and thereby render them unſerviceable to his Czariſh Majeſty; but that when they find them continue firm in their Obedience, as they ſeem well aſſur'd they will do, they will then retire without making any farther Attempts for the preſent. The Swediſh Priſoners are watch'd very narrowly at Novogrod; and Count Piper having us'd a Freedom in his Diſcourſe, which was thought unbecoming a Perſon in his Circumſtances, he has been cautioned to Talk more temperately for the future, otherwiſe the Liberties he has taken in that Reſpect, will ſubject him to greater Hardſhips than he has hitherto receiv'd. Our Letters from Dreſden adviſe, that eighteen thouſand Men of the Saxon Militia, have received Orders to be in a readineſs to March upon the firſt Occaſion; and that they are diſpoſing every thing there for a vigorous Defence, in caſe the Swedes make any Attempts on that ſide.

Cologn, March 24. N. S. Four Deputies from th Chapter and City of Oſnabrugh are paſt through this Place, on their way to Coblentz, whither they are gone to Congratulate their Biſhop, the new Elector of Treves, upon his Advancement to that Dignity. His Electoral Highneſs having been oblig'd to reſign the Biſhoprick of Olmutz, the young Prince his Brother has receiv'd a Bull from the Pope, wherein he is declar'd capable of attaining to that Biſhoprick. They write from Vienna, that there is a Match in agitation between the Electoral Prince of Saxony and the Arch-Dutcheſs of Auſtria; theſe Letters add, that upon Information that a great Number of Hermits, and Vagabonds were got into the City, diligent ſearch was made the 11th inſtant, and ſeveral ſuſpected Perſons were ſeized and committed to Priſon. The Roman Catholicks are much alarm'd at the Poſſeſſion of Hildeſheim by the Troops of Hanover, they pretend the Elector has ſomething more in view, and that he acts upon other grounds than what he has hitherto thought fit to publiſh, and are not without ſome Jealouſies that what he has done has been with his Imperial Majeſty's privity and conſent. In the mean time they imagine that the King of Pruſſia has taken Umbrage at theſe Proceedings, the rather becauſe his Majeſty has order'd ſeveral pieces of Canon, and all ſorts of Ammunition, to be ſent to Northauſen, the Garriſon of which place is to receive a Reinforcement of 800 Men; at the ſame time it is ſaid his Majeſty intends to augment the Garriſon of Quedlinburg, and has in ſeveral other inſtances teſtify'd that he is not pleas'd with what his Electoral Highneſs has done in that Affair. Our Letters from the Upper Rhine adviſe, that the Forces in thoſe Parts began to be in Motion, and that the French having threatned to attack the Lines, the Count de la Tour had order'd the Troops under his command to be in a readineſs to march in a Fortnight's time, in order to form an Army. The Intendant of Strasbourg has made great Magazines of Corn in that Place, and having receiv'd conſiderable Remittances from the French Court, he is making ſuch Diſpoſitions as may favour whatever Projects the Enemy may have concerted on that ſide.

Hague, March 24. N. S. The States of Holland ſeparated on Saturday laſt for a Fortnight, having on the 19th Inſtant proceeded to Judgment in the Caſe of Monſieur Fabricius, one of the Burgo-Maſters, and Receiver for the Town of Harlem, who was ſome time ſince put under an Arreſt for evil Practices; but it is not yet known what the Sentence is that has been pronounc'd againſt him. By Letters from France we are inform'd, that the French have ſtop'd in their Ports all the Dutch Ships whoſe Paſsports were expired, and which they have hitherto refus'd to prolong. They add, that a Declaration has been Publiſh'd in all the Maritime Places, importing, that ſuch Perſons as wou'd fit out Ships for Cruiſing, ſhou'd receive the benefit of all Prizes to themſelves, without deducting any part, either to the King, or the Admiralty; offering, moreover, to lend 'em the King's Ships of War, provided they will undertake to put 'em to Sea at their own Expence.

Expence. The Conferences that were appointed to be open'd here the 25th Inſtant, in order to terminate the Differences between his Pruſſian Majeſty and the Prince of Naſſau-Frize, are put off for ſome time, by reaſon the Commiſſioners that are empower'd to act on the Prince's part, are not yet arriv'd. Our Letters from Paris add, that the French and Swiſs Guards were review'd the 10th of this Month; and that tho' it was once reported, that they were to ſet out for the Frontiers the 15th, the time of their Departure was not yet fix'd, and that it was thought it wou'd be deferr'd 'till the latter end of the Month. In the mean time the Cavalry that were this Winter Quarter'd in Normandy, have receiv'd Orders to begin their March on the 14th towards the Frontiers.

Whereas one of Her Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State has receiv'd a Letter by the Penny-Poſt, dated the 22d, 1710, and Subſcrib'd T. B. The Perſon who wrote the ſaid Letter is deſired to come to the Office of the Secretary of State to whom it was directed.
